BJ Reads:

B'nai Jeshurun is hoping to greatly increase our community's commitment to the issue of childhood literacy in the coming year. Too many of New York's children are reading below grade level and we have the ability to make a significant difference in a child's life by giving as little as one hour of time each week. Options include:

- The Tutorial Program at PS 166 needs volunteer tutors to work on a one-to-one basis with second and third graders. Call Beth Handler at (212) 316-1168 for more information.
- The JCC's "Partners for Literacy" Program needs people to share their love of books and reading with at-risk schoolchildren (on a one-to-one basis). Call the JCC at (212) 580-0099, x206 for more information.

Call x307 for more information and to volunteer.
