BJ COMMUNITY

• Shabbat Onegs Are Back: A Taste of the World to Come!

Friday, September 8, following the late service, 88th Street: Shabbat in the 21st century doesn't have to look like the traditional meal of generations past—maybe there's live music, maybe there's no Manischewitz. You bring the kosher wine/grape juice (we ask everyone to contribute!) and we'll provide light finger food and a great space to socialize. With special guests Moti Zeira (from our Israeli partner Hamidrasha) and Mohammed Darawshe (an Israeli-Palestinian from the Abraham Fund supporting coexistence initiatives in Israel) and music featuring The Sultana Ensemble with Yoel Ben-Simhon.

The Katyusha bombings forced many artists in the mystical city of Tsfat to flee from their homes. Along with the physical destruction, lowered commercial activity has hurt the local economy. More than a dozen Tsfat artists will be here to support their colleagues and display their art. Please join us—beautify your home and your soul by viewing and purchasing their work.. Also, if you're able to host one of the artists in your home for a few days, please contact Charles Lenchner at clenchner@bj.org or x240.
