Lulavim and Etrogim for Sukkot

Over the last few years, we have experienced ever more beautiful and meaningful celebrations of Sukkot at BJ. This is due to the increased number of Lulavim and Etrogim, as well as the many adults and children who participate in the processions around the Sanctuary holding the four species.

This year, once again, we will have the opportunity to order a set of Lulav and Etrog imported from Israel, complete with branches of myrtle and willows. Sets are available at the following locations:

West Side Judaica	By Special
2412 Broadway	Arrangement
(between 88th	575 Amsterdam Ave.
& 89th Sts.)	(at 86th St.)

SOCIAL ACTION/SOCIAL JUSTICE OPPORTUNITY OF THE WEEK

• BJ Reads

It's time to dust off our storybooks and get ready for a new group of excited but shy first and second graders to begin BJ Reads at P.S. 166. Each year, Sandy and Ellen, BJ Reads co-chairs, watch the magic fill the room as each pair of Reading Partners meet, chat, choose a book, and then bend over the pages. If you love children and you love to read, please join us Monday or Wednesday morning for one hour between 9:00-10:00AM or 10:00-11:00AM. For more information, contact Sandy at sandyd001@rcn.com or Ellen at ellen.schechter@gmail.com.

* Please see the BJ website, www.bj.org, for more information and to register.

YAMIM NORA'IM 5770

• West Side Campaign Against Hunger Kol Nidre Drive

Once again, we are partnering with the West Side Campaign Against Hunger in our annual Kol Nidre food drive. The WSCAH food pantry alleviates hunger for thousands of people each year, providing supplies and teaching them to serve nutritious meals to their families. Please bring a check as your contribution to WSCAH. Drop boxes will be available at all locations on Kol Nidre and through Yom Kippur. Please do not bring canned goods or other items for donation to services, as for security reasons we cannot accept these packages.

• Afternoon Meditation on Yom Kippur

Monday, September 28, 3:30PM, 88th Sanctuary: We will sit together in silence, with minimal instruction and guidance, taking advantage of the time of the day and the moment in the ritual to give the opportunity for the many emotions, thoughts and insights that have arisen since Kol Nidre to calm down a bit. In Hebrew this is called Yishuv hada'at—settling of awareness. We will thus be more able to keep the focus of the day, and to enter into Ne'ilah with greater clarity, presence and open-heartedness. Led by Rabbi Rachel Cowan. Free; registration not required.

• Yom Kippur Seating Procedures

As we prepare to observe Yom Kippur as a community, please review the following seating procedures. Everyone will be seated on a first-come, first-served basis. Please arrive early to ensure seating; we cannot guarantee seats will be available for latecomers. Please respect your fellow congregants: do not save seats! It is inconsiderate and causes a strain on our volunteer ushers. Your compliance with these procedures will ensure the sanctity, beauty and safety of our High Holy Day services.

• Scent-Free Policy at Services

In consideration of the many people who have adverse respiratory reactions to the smells of perfume, cologne, and other chemicals, please refrain from wearing perfume or strong cologne to services. Especially during the Yamim Nora'im, when our numbers will be increased and every seat filled, please help keep BJ a scent-free and comfortable environment for all who join us.

• No Floral Arrangements for the Yamim Nora'im?

In this year of continued economic difficulties we are being prudent, using good sense and common (s)cents. We are forgoing the traditional floral arrangements for the bima and asking our members to contribute to the Kiddush Fund rather than the Flower Fund. Let our dollars bring us together to share food and community. Donations to the Kiddush Fund may be made by sending a check to the BJ office or on the BJ website, www.bj.org—just click on the "Donate Now" button.

If you have never visited a shiva house before, this is a great place to start. Free; registration required to ygarber@bj.org or x256.

If you are interested in contributing, please contact Naomi Goodhart at ngoodhart@bj.org by Friday, October 23.

• Sponsoring a Kiddush

Kiddush is a wonderful opportunity for people to meet and schmooze together. By sponsoring a kiddush you can do all that and receive a tax deductible charitable donation as well when you coordinate in advance with the BJ office. So whether it’s a birth, bar/bat mitzvah, wedding, special anniversary, yahrtzeit, or any other reason, your support towards this weekly event is most appreciated. For more information, please contact Guy Felixbrodt at gfelixbrodt@bj.org.

UPCOMING LIMUD

Please visit www.bj.org for more info and to register.

• Parashat Hashavu’a: Study Of The Weekly Torah Portion

Michelle Dardashti, Marshall T. Meyer Rabbinic Fellow

Thursdays (October 1 through May 27) • 7:00-8:30PM •

BJ Office, Conference Room • Members: Free/Non-members: $150 for the year. A Hassidic story teaches that Moses wanted to reveal more Torah to the people but God refused, wanting to give the people a sense that there is something hidden among the words for them to discover. This story’s implicit message is that we have the power to reveal the hidden parts of the Torah. By adding our own understanding of the text, we too become a part of its unfolding story. In this class, as we study the weekly Torah portion with the aid of both ancient and modern interpretations, we will reveal its many layers and find ourselves reflected in its stories and teachings.

• Introduction To Judaism

Rabbi Ezra D. Weinberg, Marshall T. Meyer Rabbinic Fellow

Mondays (October 12 through May 31) • 7:00-9:00PM •

BJ Office, Conference Room • Cost: Individuals $420/$630, couples

$630/$945 (Although you must enroll for the entire year, you may pay tuition in two installments. If you wish to do so, please make arrangements with Ezra at eweinberg@bj.org, x251.) This course offers an overview of the core beliefs, practices, and history of Judaism and the Jewish people. We hope to deepen the understanding of those just beginning to explore Jewish life as well as of those who would like to participate more fully in the life of the Jewish community. No prior knowledge or experience necessary.

• The Book of Exodus

Rabbi Hillel Friedman

Tuesdays (October 13 through May 25) • 8:30-9:30AM •

88th Street Sanctuary • Members: $100/Non-members: $150 for the year. Using both traditional and modern commentaries, the class will study the Book of Exodus, starting with Parashat Mishpatim (in translation). Rabbi Hillel Friedman, a longtime member of our community, has been teaching adult courses at BJ for the past eight years.

• Membership at B'nai Jeshurun: We invite you to become a member of our living, thriving community. The simple act of joining BJ is transformative. It is an acknowledgement that BJ is your community, its rabbis are your rabbis, and its sanctuary is your space. For more information about becoming a member, please contact Sarah Verity, Senior Membership Associate at x250 or sverity@bj.org. We look forward to welcoming you to our community!

• A Note from the Ushers: Tallit and damaged books may be brought to the back of the Sanctuary after Shabbat services. Men are asked to wear kippot during services. Photography, cell phone use, and food is not permitted in the Sanctuary. To give the prayer book and the Torah text (the large red book) the respect they merit, we ask that they not be placed on the floor when not in use. To prepare for the comfort and security of all, doors open 30 minutes before services begin.

• Assistive Listening Devices for Services at BJ are available during services at both 88th and 86th Streets. Contact the ushers at the back of the Sanctuary—and please remember to return the devices when you leave.

• LinkedIn to Help Out!

In these difficult times, we are trying many ways to help members find jobs and network. Join us in this very important effort simply by joining "B'nai Jeshurun—New York City," the BJ group on LinkedIn, www.linkedin.com. There you can share your professional network, post jobs and respond to any ongoing discussions that are posted in the group.
