SOCIAL ACTION/SOCIAL JUSTICE OPPORTUNITY OF THE WEEK

Volunteers Needed at the BJ/SPSA Homeless Shelter

The BJ/SPSA Homeless Shelter needs volunteers who can spend the night so our shelter guests have a place to stay. Our shelter is open Sunday through Thursday, so you are invited to pick the night that works best for you. This is your chance to fulfill the mitzvah of hospitality, feeding the hungry and welcoming the stranger—all while sleeping through the night. For more information, contact Anne Millman at AnnieMill@aol.com.

DONATE NOW.

BJ needs your help to achieve the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to buy the 89th Street building. Contribute by contacting Nancy Gad-Harf at ngad-harf@bj.org or 212-787-7600 x262.

- The purchase of the building is a solid financial move for BJ. In addition to over $400,000 yearly net rental savings after expenses, our new nursery school and beautiful celebratory space will generate income.

The first building bids are due November 16, 2010. Every gift will bring us closer to our goal and help us be able to secure BJ's future. Visit www.bj.org/89th-street to learn more.

6 Tuesdays (remaining classes November 16, 30, December 7), 6:30-8:00PM, 88th Street Sanctuary: We resume our reading and study of Rabbi Heschel's gigantic work on rabbinic thought. Heavenly Torah explores the polarity in Judaism between transcendence and immanence, and between mysticism and rationalism. In the chapters we will address this year, Heschel invites us to look at fundamental religious questions such as what is the reason for the mitzvot? What is the nature of prophecy? Where does the Torah come from? Please bring the book to class; no photocopies will be distributed. New participants welcome. Free of charge; registration required.

• God!

Mishael Zion

Part 2: November 15, 22, 29 and December 6, 6:30-8:00PM, Skirball Center for Adult Jewish Learning at Temple Emanu-El (10 East 66th Street): Father, Mother, King, Nothingness? We use many words to approach and describe God, but don't often have an opportunity to understand and discuss the images and sources of these words. Inspired by Talmudic stories, medieval philosophy and Kabbalah, as well as modern poetry, revisit the ways Jews imagined God and enrich your own language in approaching the Divine in your life. This course is in partnership with BJ. Register at the Skirball Center website, www.adultjewishlearning.org.
