COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

• Are You a New Member of BJ?

Tuesday, January 15 and Thursday, January 24, 6:30-9:00PM, location provided upon registration: If you've joined B'nai Jeshurun in the past year, we have a hand-crafted experience just for you. Our New Member Orientation Programs (NMOPs) are the way to learn all of the BJ inside info you need to know. Now is your chance to learn about our shared history and schmooze with our rabbis, hazzan, and other new members. Each NMOP is a 2-session series. R.S.V.P. to Belinda Lasky, blasky@bj.org, by January 14.

• Paths To Parenthood: A Workshop

Wednesday, January 16, 7:00-8:30PM, 88th Street Frankel Hall: Rabbi Felicia Sol will be joined by BJ member Robin Fleischner, an adoption and assisted reproduction attorney, and Nancy Kaufman LCSW, a therapist whose practice is focused on infertility. The paths to parenthood, including adoption, in vitro fertilization, ova, sperm and embryo donation, and surrogacy raise questions from an ethical, legal, psychological and Jewish standpoint. A panel discussion will be followed by smaller breakout sessions. Free of charge; registration required at www.bj.org.

• Teaching in Memory of Shira Palmer-Sherman:

What Really Happened at Yam Suf? Lessons from the Water's Edge

Saturday, January 19, 4:30-6:30PM, 89th Street Reception Room: The story of the crossing of the Red Sea is one of the most central narratives of the Jewish experience but one of the most mysterious. Through reading of a number of midrashim, we will explore how the Rabbis understood this seminal narrative and the lessons we should take from it. The teaching will be led by Rachel Rosenthal, a PhD candidate in Rabbinic Literature at the Jewish Theological Seminary and a member of the faculty at the Drisha Institute. Free. Please register at www.bj.org.

• Tu Bishvat Community Seder and Shabbat Dinner

Friday, January 25, following the service, 88th Street Frankel Hall: Join BJ's Director of Israel Engagement Orli Moss and Rabbinic Fellow Adam Roffman for Shabbat Dinner and an Israeli Tu Bishvat seder. Through song, text, and ritual, we will recreate Israeli Tu Bishvat customs from the past. Participatory and spiritually uplifting, the seder will be a terrific evening for adults and children middle school age and older. Seating is limited. Cost is $36/BJ members, $46/non-members, $18/children under 18. Advance registration is required at www.bj.org.

• Scripture, Tradition, and Art: Jewish, Christian and Muslim Texts, Images, and Performance

4 Thursdays (February 7, 14, 21, 28), 7:00-9:00PM, 88th Street: Co-sponsored by Mekusharim and the Interfaith Committee, Rabbi Lewis Warshauer will present works of art inspired by Abraham and his sons,

Ishmael and Isaac, and also by the stories of Joseph. Because these stories are integral to all three faiths, we will study texts and view images of these two key narratives in order to deepen our understanding of how artists from different times and different traditions have interpreted and shared these stories. Free of charge; registration required at www.bj.org.

• Hakhanah laTefillah: Preparing for Prayer

2 Saturdays each month (January 26; February 9, 23; March 9, 23; April 6, 20; May 4, 18; June 1, 15), 8:45-9:20AM, 86th Street Chapel: Please join Rabbi Roly Matalon to prepare the soul and open the heart for Shabbat morning prayers through the singing of piyutim and reflections on kavannah.

• BJ Israel Book Group: Love and War in Contemporary Israeli Fiction

6 Mondays (remaining sessions February 4, March 4, April 22, and May 20), 7:30-9:00PM, 89th Street: Always wanted to read novels by Israel's greatest authors? Join BJ members and Jewish studies professors Carole Balin and Jennifer Sylvor to read one book for each decade since Israel's establishment. The next selection is To the End of the Land by David Grossman. Visit www.bj.org/israelibooks or contact Orli at omoss@bj.org for details.

• Refuah V'Nehama: Service for Healing and Comfort

Wednesday, February 6, 7:00PM, 88th Street Sanctuary: Join Rabbi Felicia Sol for an evening prayer service with song, silence, study and connection devoted to healing and comfort. All are welcome—whether you are ill, praying for someone who is ill, looking for strength to get through a difficult time, seeking comfort following the death of a loved one or desiring a community of prayer. Contact Andrea at abrecker@bj.org with any questions.

• Aliyah and Kiddush to Honor BJ Volunteers

Saturday, February 9, during Shabbat morning services, 86th Street followed by Kiddush at the 88th Street Sanctuary: Each year, more than 1,000 volunteers make BJ an active and supportive community. Our volunteers personify one of the three pillars upon which BJ was built and demonstrate commitment to serving our community through many meaningful initiatives. We invite you to join together for the honor of being called to the Torah for an aliyah during services, with a Kiddush in your honor immediately following. R.S.V.P. to Belinda Lasky at blasky@bj.org by February 4.

14 Tuesdays (January 8 through May 21), 12:30-1:45PM, BJ Office Conference Room: Our Hassidic Rabbis give voice to the search for authentic prayer and the possibility of being in connection with God. Join Rabbi Felicia L. Sol for an exploration of Hassidic texts on prayer and a conversation of how we might cultivate a more engaged and profound prayer life. Participants are encouraged to come for the entirety of the class but each class will stand alone so new participants are always welcome. No prior knowledge is expected. Free of charge; please register at www.bj.org.

Free of charge; Registration is now closed as the class is full.

• Davening 101 Jonah Geffen, BJ Rabbinic Fellow

Thursdays (through May 30), 7:00-8:30PM, BJ Office, Conference Room: The siddur is the guidebook of tefillah, and though central to our practice of prayer, the siddur is all too often difficult or impossible to access. Its structure is a mystery, its words foreign, its relevance to our own experience unclear. And yet, it is entirely knowable. Together we will explore the deep meaning of the words of our people's prayers, gain greater understanding of the structure of services, and learn the techniques and choreography of tefillah. Registration encouraged at www.bj.org.
